

James Garrick practises in the area of construction law and specialises in litigation and dispute resolution.

James has experience acting and advising on major construction and public infrastructure projects, particularly across the health, transport and rail sectors. He also has experience advising and representing clients on a broad range of complex commercial issues, including claims relating to misleading or deceptive conduct, breach of contract, professional negligence, statutory regulation, defamation and media law.

Prior to joining MolinoCahill, James was Senior Associate to the Honourable Justice Lyons of the Supreme Court of Victoria and an Associate in the litigation practice group of a national law firm.

James' experience includes:

Advising a principal in relation to the delivery phase of a public tertiary hospital and the resolution of claims made by a managing contractor for extensions of time, delay costs and variations.

Acting for and advising an international contractor regarding the prosecution of claims arising in relation to a major rail infrastructure project in New South Wales.

Assisting with project documentation in relation to a major infrastructure project in Western Australia.

Acting for and advising an ASX-listed company in Supreme Court of Queensland proceedings in relation to a claim for breaches of contract and consumer law in relation to the design, manufacture and supply of refrigerated truck trailers.

Acting for and advising commercial television and radio broadcasters in relation to contractual, regulatory and pre-publication matters.

Acting and advising in defamation proceedings in the Supreme Courts of Victoria and New South Wales.

Acting for and advising government, statutory and regulatory bodies in relation to statutory interpretation, regulatory, governance and administrative law matters and proceedings in the Supreme Court of Victoria.

Acting and advising in Supreme Court of Victoria proceedings in relation to a claim for misleading or deceptive conduct and breaches of contract arising from a $400 million acquisition of an Australian malting business.

Acting for and advising a major Australian bank in Supreme Court of Victoria proceedings in relation to a claim concerning fraudulent transactions totalling approximately $10 million.

Acting for and advising plaintiffs and defendants in relation to class action proceedings in the Federal Court and Supreme Court of Victoria regarding claims for misleading or deceptive conduct, negligence, directors' liabilities and breaches of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

James was admitted to practice in Victoria in 2014 and is registered to practise in the High Court and Federal Court of Australia.

James Garrick
BBioMedSc LLB
Senior Associate

+61 3 9606 3220
jgarrick@molinocahill.com.au